

Noha Hachach is the Associate Director for Operations. In this capacity, she collaborates with our internal and external stakeholders, to identify our strengths for new GHI programs and expand our network of relationships to increase GHI's visibility, impact and financial resources.

She earned her Bachelors of Science in Biology with honors from the University of British Columbia in 2004 and a Masters in Public Health with a concentration in Health Management and Policy from AUB in 2007. During this time she was also selected as the only postgraduate student to serve on the Faculty Task Force that prepared for and achieved the graduate program accreditation by the Council on Education in Public Health (CEPH). Noha also has an Executive Program certificate from the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE) and over 10 years of experience in health management.
